On Friday, February 17, 2012 tune in to a free informational conference call and online presentation on AmeriCorps, it's programs, and how you can get involved. The call will cover a brief overview of this great leadership development opportunity, the transition to work that is associated with it, and the national service program as a whole. This is intended for any organization which may encourage individuals to pursue national service or organizations who just want to know more about Indiana AmeriCorps.

This conference call and presentation is free but you must register in order to attend.

Please contact Megan Fetter at the Office of Faith Based and Community Initiatives for more information or if you need accommodation for this call and presentation. A transcript of the webinar text and Power Point will be available for those who would like to follow along with the presentation off-line.
